

Daniel B. Merritt

380 SW Beachway Ave
Palm City, FL 34990

Professional History

1998 - current

Self Employed (Semi-retired)

Information Technology consulting services, project management, and general business guidance. Client industries include software development, telecommunications, manufacturing, retail sales, distribution, utilities, and service delivery. Extensive experience in the integration of disparate systems resulting from acquisitions or mergers and the development and provisioning of operational management direction. Industry experience includes wholesale, retail, services, construction, distribution and financial.

Extensive team leadership and team member mentorship to drive successful projects and achievement of client goals.

Prior History

C-Level Information Technology Executive in several large telecommunications organizations responsible for the development, implementation, and operation of all corporate information systems. Positions included Operating and Capital Improvement budgetary responsibility as well as strategic guidance for design, development, implementation, and operation of various enterprise support systems.

Senior Consultant in a large, multi-national public accounting firm, responsible for client related activities such as system evaluations related to the Financial Audit, evaluating client requirements for various automated applications including financial and operational consideration. Participated in client's Executive Information Technology Steering Committees.

Education

University of West Florida

Pensacola, FL
Bachelor of Science - Computer Science